Re: Microsoft Settlement

As a private citizen, this case should be closed and left as is. It has cost quite a bit of money to work on this case both from the government (representing the people), the taxpayers who pay the government to perform, and the Microsoft Co. who are the defendants of this case.

The settlement brought forth by the lower courts is a fair one. It costs Microsoft Company to pay for its transgressions of the law and the Plaintiffs should be happy. The public (taxpayers) are sick and tired of this case dragging over the past two years.

This case has been deemed fair by the courts, let it be. In the interests of justice for everyone concerned it is closed.
